THREE cheers for Johnnie Managan,
The honest cigar boy,
Who brought our baby friend its ring,
And made it wild with joy.
The little prattler begs us now
To plainly write it down,
"She thinks that Johnnie Managan's
The best man in the town."

FLOUR declined fifty cents a barrel yesterday.

RASPBERRIES are selling here at 20 cents a quart.

HARVEST is in progress everywhere in the county.

GOVERNOR CRITTENDEN, of Missouri, has pardoned many of the convicted gamblers, and has raised a hornet's nest about his ears.

THE gold ring lost by a little friend of the BULLETIN's and advertised in yesterday's issue, was found by Mr. John Managan and restored to the little loser.

THE governor has commuted the sentence of Hanson, from Fayette, to imprisonment for life. His case was affirmed by the Court of Appeals last week.

GOV. BLACKBURN has refused to pardon Henry White, of Lexington, convicted on the charge of making away with bonds deposited in one of the banks of that city.

MRS. MARY A. SUPPLEA who died in East Maysville, last Sunday evening, had been a sufferer from cancer for about four years. She was an esteemed citizen whose death will be sincerely deplored by a wide circle of friends.

EDWARD BURLEY, esq., representing the firm of Brown, Rice & Quinley, of New York, is now in the city interviewing our grain, flour and commission men. He has been traveling for several weeks in this state and reports a fine grain crop.

COL. J. SMITH HURT, of Owingsville, well known to the Democracy of this district, as one of its true and tried members, is announced elsewhere as a candidate for congress. Should he be honored with the nomination he will have the earnest support of the Mason Democracy.

THE Maysville City Four Mills began work on Monday the 19th inst at 6 o'clock in morning and ran night and day until 11 o'clock the following Saturday night, a period of one hundred and thirty-seven hours without stopping the machinery. The flour made at these mills is getting to be so popular that the proprietors find it difficult to supply the demand.

Sales of Land.

The following changes in the ownership of land have been recorded at the office of the Clerk of the County Court, since our last report:
S. N. Robinson and others to Joseph Huber, 38 acres of land on Lawrence creek; consideration, $2,628.
D. E. Roberts' administrator to Daniel Williams, lot No. 95 in the fifth ward of Maysville; consideration, $425.
Wm. Forman to G. L. Forman, grantor's interest in the old mill site on Lawrence creek; consideration, $30.

Premium.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have made arrangements to give as a premium to every subscriber to the daily or weekly BULLETIN, who may pay in advance for the same, a copy of the treatise on the "Horse and his Diseases." This work contains an index of diseases which gives the symptoms, cause and the best treatment of each; a table giving all of the principal drugs used for the horse, with the ordinary dose, effects, and antidote when a poison; a table with an engraving of the horse's teeth at different ages, with rules for telling the age of the horse; a valuable collection of receipts, and much other information that will be useful to every farmer and to every one interested in horses. A copy of this book will be given to each subscriber of the BULLETIN, under the conditions named above.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ferris, of Waxahachie, Texas, will arrive this evening to attend the marriage of their son Mr. T. A. Ferris to Miss S. E. Thompson, of this city. The marriage will take place at the Christian Church at ten o'clock to-morrow morning.

Rev. S. B. Alderson will leave for Missouri, on the 10th of July, and will be gone until about the middle of August.

Mr. William H. Alexander, of Lewisburg, who has been very ill for several months past, we regret to say, is no better.

Moonlight Fete.

There will be a grand moonlight fete at the public school grounds in East Maysville, next Monday and Tuesday evenings, for the purpose of raising money to furnish the East End Cornet and Reed Band with uniforms. There will be a good string band in attendance and every facility for dancing. Refreshments of all kinds may be had on the grounds and the best order will be maintained. As the move is one that is worthy of generous support, we hope to see a large attendance. The admission to the grounds is only 10 cents.

Notice.

MAYSVILLE, KY., June 28, 1882.

The Democratic Executive Committee will meet at the office of Judge G. S. Wall, on Monday July 3, 1882, at 10 o'clock, a. m. Business of importance is to be transacted and a full attendance is required.
GARRETT S. WALL, Chairman.

TWENTY-FIVE or thirty years ago when many of the present leaders of the Democracy were learning the elements at an old field school, the Democratic party of this state under the leadership of the gallant Breckinridge was confronting the enemies of political and religious proscription and winning victory after victory in many a hotly contested flight over the hosts of fanatics and demagogues who gathered under the black banner of Know-Nothingism. The gallant chieftain who unhorsed the Black Knight is no more, but the principles for which he contended will grow and gather strength as the years roll on. Religious intolerance is utterly at war with the spirit of free institutions. The proscriptive spirit which would crush a Catholic would not spare any denomination on earth. It must perish where opinion is free.

Guiteau's Brother Laboring for a Respite.

WASHINGTON, June 27—7 A. M.—John W. Guiteau was employed all day yesterday in condensing new evidence of his brother's insanity, which he proposes to submit to President Arthur. He now has it in the form of printed slips, the matter being sufficient to make a pamphlet of ten pages. One letter from which he quotes is from J. H. Noyes, once the head of the Oneida Community, dated in 1863. In it Noyes says:

"I regard him (Guiteau) insane, and I prayed for him last night sincerely as I ever prayed for my own son, now in a lunatic asylum."

In 1863 E. H. Hamilton wrote that he thought Guiteau demented

Another of the letters is from the assassin himself to his father, in which he claims inspiration, and asserts that he is in the employ of Jesus Christ & Co. Another letter, written in 1873, from S. W. Guiteau, declares that Charles Guiteau is insane and hardly responsible for his actions.

A letter given to John by the assassin during the trial is printed with the rest. It is a note of introduction to President Arthur, whom he addresses as "my supposed friend," and requested him to talk freely with John and instruct the prosecuting attorney to go slow. Besides this there are a number of other cranky effusions from Guiteau. John expects to present this evidence of insanity to the president to-day, if the latter returns to the city in time. Mrs. Scoville arrived here last night accompanied by her little daughter, and is stopping with friends. She appears to be worn and excited and does not wish to make any public statement at present. She and John will probably visit the assassin to-day. It is said to be the intention of both to witness the execution. Nothing has yet been done in regard to the disposition of Guiteau's corpse.

Dennis Fitzgerald.

MAYSVILLE, KY., June 28, 1882.

Ed. Bulletin: There is now an attempt by a certain class to get up a great hue and cry about Dennis Fitzgerald's having scratched the democratic ticket in 1874. Waiving the display of honest individuality, shown in this, which might be urged as its defense, it appears to us a bad argument to be addressed to democrats, since it shows itself up in this, that we must throw Dennis Fitzgerald overboard, forsooth because he, on one occasion scratched the Democratic ticket, and vote for Jno. Kirk, who has done nothing all his life but scratch the Democratic ticket, and is still doing so. This is just a little too transparent to gull our good voters; and our Republican friend must rub his head for something better than this if he would prevent our rolling up a handsome majority for Dennis Fitzgerald.

He is a Democrat of too long standing to need vindication, and the vote of August will upset the insinuation that Democrats can be wrought upon by such puerile pleas as this of the Republican.

We recall an old fable which runneth thus: "Once upon a time three oxen were grazing together in great harmony, in the same pasture, and were thus safe from the incursions of beasts of prey. But discord having arisen among themselves they, separated, and were attacked singly, and devoured by the wild beasts."

This fable teaches how much good there is in harmony. Fox.

COUNTY POINTS.

CANADY'S CREEK.

Wheat harvest is now in order. Hands scarce and wages good.

A good deal of tobacco has been put out since the late rains and is doing well.

Mrs. R. L. Tudor of Maysville, was visiting the family of Mr. J. E. Fristoe, last week. She returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Case and her sister, Mrs. Dora Sweet, returned home on Sunday last, after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Bracken county.

Miss Jennie Kehoe, one of Maysville's most charming young ladies is the guest of Miss Nora Kelley, of this neighborhood.

J. B. Fristoe, wife and daughter, were the guests of the family of A. D. Rains, last week.

Thomas Williams was circulating among his friends at this place on Sunday last.

Wm. Williams, who has been dangerously sick with pneumonia, is we are glad to learn, improving.

J. B. Fristoe is hauling rock to his property lately purchased in Maysville, with a view of making improvements.

Henry Marshall and Thomas Montjoy, of Stone Lick, were visiting in this neighborhood Sunday. Tycoon.

DIED.

In East Maysville, Sunday, June 25, 1882, at fifteen minutes after eleven o'clock, p. m., Mrs. MARY A. SUPPLEA, wife Mr. Wm. Supplea, of cancer, at the age of sixty-one years.

Calm on the bosom of thy God,
Dear spirit rest thee now,
Even when with us thy footsteps trod,
His seal was on thy brow.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life has fled,
Then in Heaven with joy we'll greet thee,
Where no parting tears are shed.
